The dates above are approximate and there is a little leeway on editorial deadlines if the material is objective. Whilst we will not alter any technical information supplied to us, we do reserve the right to alter, without reference to the author, anything that is not in keeping with our policy of impartiality and objective comment. Please let us know well in advance which subjects you wish to submit editorial on.

WireIN goes to the Electrical Contracting Industry throughout Scotland, Ireland & Northern Ireland, to Named Decision Makers.

WireIN has by far the best distribution into both (and separately) the Irish and Scottish Electrical Contracting Industries to Named Decision Makers. WireIN ALSO gives an added online presence for two months with each Edition.
